Good House Keeping asks "Are Americans polite?" Those in 33 States were not polite enough to give us Democrats a showing in the recent election.

Says the Winston Republican: "The Democrats are welcome to their bankrupt State treasury, debt and bonds." Gee! but those grapes are awful sour.

One of our esteemed contemporaries says: "The South should make known its demands." Well here goes with the first one. Doggone it, pull us out from under that landslide!

The Philadelphia Record states that a pretty Pennsylvania girl whipped a wild cat with an umbrella the other day. Because she is pretty is no sign that any man wants to take chances along with a wild cat.

An exchange exclaims: "All women are for peace." North Carolinians who are dodging in the tall timber had better wait for confirmation of that declaration before risking a return engagement at home.

There is lots of talk about reorganizing the Democracy. The organization is all right but it is up to the party to lose some of the men who do so much to give it the quadruped shape that it has in the campaign cartoons.

The New York World says it is reported that President Roosevelt's ambition now is to become "a patriarchal head of the people." Any old head will do for those who did'nt know any more than to give us four years more of Theodore.

A rich New Yorker kissed a pretty girl, and she has gone to court to get $25,000 out of him. He admits the kissing but says she was "a sort of orphan," won his sympathy and he didn't see any harm in "soft soaping" the girl. When will these soft-soapers find out that it takes hard cash to drown a squeak?

Broke Face With Bottle

John Grady, an all-round bad negro, who has evidently escaped from the roads, was brought down to the police station last night with an ugly cut in his nose, received at the hands of another negro named Lewis Covington, who smashed him, at Fourth and Bladen streets, with a beer bottle. Dr. C. T. Harper was summoned and sewed up the wound of Grady, after which he was lodged in the station to await a hearing from the convict camp authorities. Covington said he disfigured Grady's physiognomy because he cursed and attempted to strike his (Covington's) wife. The negroes were arrested by Policeman E. R. Chadwick.

JOINT PYTHIAN MEETING.

Interesting Social Gathering of Knights With Stonewall Lodge Last Night. Another Held in December.

The Pythian social session held last night in Castle Hall, on the third floor of the Murchison National Bank building, was a most pleasant affair indeed and attracted a goodly number of Knights from each of the four thriving lodges in the city as well as several visiting members of the order. The affair was planned and executed under the direction of the joint entertainment committee of Stonewall, Clarendon, Germania and Jefferson lodges and the committee, with Mr. L. B. Rogers as chairman and Mr. J. D. Kelley as secretary, deserves all praise for the manner in which everything passed off. It having been the regular meeting night of Stonewall lodge, that veteran Knight, Capt. W. F. Corbett, presided as Chancellor Commander; Mr. W. C. Smith, as Keeper of Records and Seals, was at his desk and all other officers of the lodge were at their respective stations.

The feature of the meeting was a discussion of the question: "What is the First Duty of a Pythian Knight?" Only two set speeches were made and each was listened to with pleasure and profit. The speakers were Dr. W. C. Galloway, of Clarendon, and John H. Gore, Jr., Esq., of Jefferson lodge. Other remarks of an impromptu nature were made by Supreme Master of Exchequer T. D. Meares, State Deputy Grand Chancellor J. D. Nutt, Aldermen W. H. Yopp and S. Behrens, Messrs. R. S. Collins, John Haar, L. L. Boon and W. C. VonGlahn. Among the visiting members present were Capt. A. Pelsang and Mr. E. Wilson, of the yacht "Cocoon," now in port, who hold their membership in No. 281, Harlem, N. Y., and Mr. M. H. Edwards, of Black Diamond Lodge No. 101, Coal Creek, Tenn.

Chairman Rogers, of the joint entertainment committee, announced that the next joint social session would be held with Clarendon Lodge No. 2, on the second Tuesday night in December. At that meeting, according to resolution at the recent meeting of the Supreme Lodge, all Knights, who have been affiliated with the order for 25 years will be presented with a veterans' jewel.

Hall, the leader of the orchestra, has opened a musical studio where instruction will be given on the violin and clarinet by himself; cello and string bass by Prof. J. A. Fettel and cornet by Prof. Hollowbush.

—On account of the circus to-day Capt. Robertson last night issued an order suspending the regular drill of the W. L. I. for this evening. Capt. Robertson says the company is now in remarkably fine shape and the attendence upon drills is extraordinarily good. On election night, for instance, there were only four absentees from the entire roster of the company.

BIG SHOW IS HERE.

Forepaugh & Sells Brothers' Enormous Tented Enterprise Coming from Florence.

ARRIVED THIS MORNING.

Tents Will be Pitched Near Hilton Park. Something of the Gigantic Aggregation That Will Delight Wilmington To-day—The Parade.

Demoralization born of ecstatic delight will hold imperial sway over juvenile Wilmingtonians to-day. It is the day the small boy has been waiting with ill concealed anxiety for two weeks or more. And it is not Young America who is alone with all this pent-up feeling of expected delight, for (speak it not above the whisper) the "old gentleman" has the date set down on the calendar with the same scrupulous care. They tell us it's circus day, the biggest holiday of all the year. Something sort of magical about it, isn't there? Makes sluggish blood course a little faster, and, after it is all over, makes a fellow feel a little better for the living. Common ground for the high and low and a pretty good place to see an exemplification of the American spirit of liberality. But to the subject.

The great Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers Enormous United Shows will reached here at an early hour this morning from Florence, S. C., in three sections of 76 cars, each 60 feet long. Four hundred horse are transported with the show, 16 elephants, 27 camels and there are 817 people on the pay roll. The daily expenses of the show are in excess of $5,000. The parade is a mile long. The circus is valued at $4,000,000 and the tent now used is said to be the largest ever manufactured, having five center poles. Three rings and one stage are use in the performances, as many as twelve acts being in progress at one time.

The great work of unloading this mammoth pile of paraphernalia and the animals will be in progress ere the average citizen is awake this morning. Barring accidents the parade will start from the grounds at 10 o'clock traversing all the principal streets.

Forepaugh and Sells Brothers rather neglected us last season; were out West all the Summer. The advance announcements call it a "feature show" and the pictorial posters bear out the statement. Big acts and many of them—that's the promise made. A drill a minute through a three hours' programme. Lots of novelties and among them performances that have never before been seen in this country until the present season of the circus.

The two biggest thrillers promised are the feats of Diavolo and Prodigious Porthos. Diavolo's performance has been the greatest sensation in the circus world since he first looped the loop on his bicycle with the Forepaugh-Sells show. Other shows have sought to secure an imitator, but without avail. But this dare devil Diavolo must look well to his laurels this season, for Prodigious Porthos has as little fear of death as the loop-the-loopist. Porthos is sort of a human flying machine. He rides down a steep incline on his bicycle and shoots off into space like a rocket, bridging a chasm fifty feet wide, over a herd of elephants, alighting on a platform ten feet high and then riding down a short incline to the ground. It is said to be the most picturesque bicycle performance ever attempted.

Numerous features from abroad that are to be seen for the first time are announced. Among them are the Seven Lecussons, in their wonderful melange of equestrian and acrobatic acts, entitled "On the Way to the Grand Prix Race, Paris," introducing a four-horse park brake, both animals and vehicles being utilized in the phenomenal performances given. The Szarvasi Frencz Troupe of Hungarian Magyars, whose almost prehistoric acrobatic dancing and musical performances have never before been seen outside of their native land. The four most popular and versatile of all French clowns, the Martinekys, whose freaks and follies are added to those of nearly half a hundred clowns from everywhere. Mons. Hubert, the most original and amazing of all bareback jugglers, accompanied by his champion equestrian dog, and among whose phenomenal feats is included jumping from the back of his horse while holding up a sulky by its thills, and balancing a park cart on his chin, after presenting a remarkable juggling programme therein. The Eddy family, recognized as stars of first magnitude in every great arena, and who now for the first time introduce their new and original aerial stage acrobatic act—a feature never heretofore attempted.

Of champion riders there are two score or more, and included among them are the champions of all countries and all schools of equestrianism.

The Aurora Zouaves, the best drilled soldiers in the world, who created a furore in Madison Square Garden, New York, continue as one of the big features.

Persons who enjoy the thrills that come from aerial sensations will have their fill. The famous family of Flying Jordans have returned from a world's tour to become a feature of the circus. Their flights, dives and somersaults from trapeze to trapeze and to the hands of one another, way up underneath the dome of the canvas are said to be sufficiently hair raising for the most exact. Then there are the aerial Lamonts, who perform wonderful stunts on a slender cable high in the air. These are but a few of the serial sensations.

And speaking of clowns. There will be two score of them and they come from all countries and represent every school of fooldom.

Many features have been added to the already big menagerie. A collection of fourteen full-grown Polar bears will be an original and novel feature. No show has ever before exhibited more than one. There are a score of elephants—big and little—and included in the number are the famous Forepaugh dancing elephants and the Sells Brothers' drill elephants.

Of course there will be a street parade and it will be quite a brilliant pageant, representing as it does the history of the country's wars by the appearence of proper costumed soldiers of every conflict in which this nation has participated.

Owing to the wet, sloppy grounds at Florence yesterday and the impossibility of getting the heavy wagons out of the lot at night, no evening performance was given there and as soon as possible the three sections of the train were made up and started 90 minutes apart on the slow journey of over a hundred miles to Wilmington. The first section was due to arrive at Hilton at 4:40 o'clock this morning. It was impossible this morning to get the route for the street parade further than that it will be along "the principal streets." The parade under all ordinary conditions will leave the grounds at 10 o'clock, or as soon thereafter as possible. The prices advertised are 50c for adults; 25c for children under 9 years of age. Doors open at 1 and 7 P. M. for the menagerie and grand concerts by Merrick's Military Band. The arenic display is one hour later. The weather forecast for to-day is fair with light to fresh north to northeast winds.

Street Car Service.

The Consolidated Company is making every arrangement to handle the big crowds to and from the show grounds. In addition to the regular schedule of the city cars, double headers will be operated around the belt and out through Brooklyn during rush hours. In addition to the regular cars and the double headers special cars will also be operated from the junction to the nearest approach to the grounds. Those unable to get seats on the belt line cars will do well to come to the junction and take one of the special cars. In addition to the small cars all the suburbans will also be operated. On the suburban line Car No. 28 will be operated on a special schedule for the benefit of those at Delgado and Wrightsville who desire to attend the show or see the parade in the morning. In addition to the regular schedule on the suburban line the following changes and additions will be made:

Car due to leave Wrightsville at 7:30 P. M. will leave at 7 P. M. instead, and an extra car will leave the junction for Wrightsville at 11 P. M.

The Company regrets its inability to carry passengers direct to the circus entrance, but would say in this connection that they have induced the circus people to place their main entrance as near the Carolina Central bridge as possible, to which point they will operate the cars.

MAY LIBEL STEAMER JOHNSON.

J. C. Bornemann Brings Action for Wages Alleged to be Due.

Mr. A. J. Johnson, of Taylor's Bridge, Sampson county, owner of the steamer "A. J. Johnson," was served with notice to appear before U. S. Court Clerk S. P. Collier to day and show cause why the boat should not be libeled for seaman's wages. The complaint is brought by Mr. J. C. Bornemann, of this city, who was formerly an employe on the boat and files his claim as mate of the steamer. It is understood that the amount alleged to be due is something over $330. Mr. Bornemann is represented by S. M. Empie and T. E. Brown, Esqs., while Mr. Johnson's interests are being looked after by Hon. Jno. D. Bellamy. The hearing is before Mr. Collier at 10 o'clock this morning.

Charlie Cutts, Mayor of Cordele.

Everybody in Wilmington remembers popular "Charlie" Cutts and will be interested in the announcement that in the election last Tuesday he was elected to the mayoralty of Cordele Ga., of which city he has been a resident for a number of years. The Cordele Daily News on the day after the election printed a large half-tone cut of Mayor Cutts and added by way of supplement to the returns: "Charles Clinton Cutts, who yesterday received the nomination for mayor of Cordele, is best known as "Cutts." He is one of the most popular men in the city, enterprising, jovial and sympathetic. He is a friend of everything. Almost everybody likes him, and even his political opponents extended him sincere congratulations. That Cutts is "onto his job" when it comes to this mayor business is best attested by the fact that this will make his third term as the executive head of the city of Cordele."

Funeral of Mrs. Latimer.

In the presence of a large concourse of friends and relatives, in St. James' church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, the order for the burial of the dead was impressively said, the Rev. R. W. Hogue, rector of the parish, officiating. The floral offerings were numerous and very pretty. The interment was in Oakdale cemetery.

What's the use to buy ready-made clothes when you can get the same goods in fine custom tailored garments at the same money? Hundreds of well satisfied customers will tell you how it's done at I. Shrier's, northeast corner of Front and Princess streets. "At the sign of the Golden Arm." That's the place.

NORTHEAST STORM.

Two Small Coasting Schooners Pounded to Pieces on the Rocks at New Inlet.

GALE OF FORTY-ONE MILES.

Decided Fall in Temperature and Snow in Parts of the State—Some Damage at Fort Caswell—Killing Frost Predicted for This Morning.

The northeast storm predicted by the Weather Bureau last Saturday was rather slow in materializing, but when it did arrive, it came with considerable fury and has left in its wake some freezing temperature, which promises to abide with us for several days. The wind reached a maximum velocity of 41 miles an hour in Wilmington but on the immediate coast the storm was much more severe and the possibilities are that to-day or to-morrow will develop a story of much shipwreck and suffering at sea. Thus far reported the sum total of the damage to shipping is the loss of the two small coasting schooners "Mary Wheeler" and "Mary C," both of which were pounded to pieces and one of them sunk at "the rocks" at New Inlet. However, there was no loss of life, the captain and crew of each of the sharpies having escaped ashore.

The "Mary Wheeler," Capt. John Morgan, light, bound to Wilmington from Fort Caswell, where she had carried a cargo of brick for the government fortifications, was broken to pieces and thrown "high and dry" on the jetties. The "Maggie C," bound from this port to Shallotte, Brunswick county, with a cargo of general merchandise consigned by Wilmington merchants, was pounded to pieces and sunk by the high seas. Both vessels are a complete loss with the cargo of the last named. The crew of both the schooners came up yesterday afternoon on the steamer "Wilmington" and reported a rough experience with the storm. The vessels had anchored in New Inlet up near "the rocks" Sunday morning and were thought to be safe. But the wind shifted from northeast to southeast and then to west, and they were simply battered to pieces on the rocks.

The "Mary Wheeler" was owned by Capt. John Morgan and Messrs. Jesse and Louis Wilson, of Calabash. She was about 51 feet long and valued at about $1,000. The "Maggie C" was slightly smaller and not quite so good a boat. She belonged to Mr. R. V. Leonard, of Wilmington; Messrs. V. Smith, J. Stanaland and C. A. Rourk & Co., of Shallotte. Her cargo of merchandise was valued at about $600. There was not a cent of insurance on the property.

The storm reached the height of its fury about noon Sunday and blew a perfect gale on the coast. At Fort Caswell it was especially severe, several of the slate roofs on the government buildings having been damaged. In Wilmington there was no damage but the weather was decidedly cold and disagreeable. It began snowing in Asheville as early as 3 o'clock Sunday morning and later in the day a trace of snow was visible in Fayetteville, Wilson, Rocky Mount and other towns in Eastern North Carolina.

The thermometer here yesterday morning dropped to 36 degrees, the lowest point of the season. It was not quite cold enough for freezing in the city, but in several exposed places in the surrounding country ice was reported. Mr. Feiger, the local forecaster, predicted colder weather last night with frost. It will be a killing frost if the wind diminishes, which is more than likely the case.

Capt. Sanders, of the steamer "Sea Gate," reports that that the red beacon, which is known as "No. 0" at Battery Island, on the coast, was blown down in the storm.

Wedding at Southport.

Mr. Samuel R. Skinner, of Mullins, S. C., and bride, nee Miss Mary Barnes Pepper, one of the most charming young women of Southport, arrived in the city yesterday en route to their future home at Mullins. Mr. Skinner and Miss Pepper were married Sunday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Capt. and Mrs. J. L. Pepper, the Rev. Euclid McWhorter officiating. The wedding was very quiet, only relatives and a few intimate friends having been present. Mr. and Mrs. Skinner will receive the happiest congratulations of many friends to whom the announcement of their marriage will come as a surprise.

Order of Railway Conductors.

At the semi-monthly meeting of Cape Fear Division No. 271, Order of Railway Conductors, held in Wilmington this week, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Capt. John M. Walker, chief conductor; Capt. W. L. Harlow, assistant chief conductor; Capt. Thos. J. Pae, secretary; Capt. W. L. Jones, senior conductor; Capt. J. O. Hinton, junior conductor; Capt. C. E. McCulloch, outside sentinel. Capt. Walker and Capt R. L. Cobb were elected delegate and alternate, respectively, to the Grand Division annual meeting in Portland, Oregon, next May.

Pleasure Yacht in Port.

Owing to stress of weather, the pleasure yacht "Cocoon," Captain Pelsang, from New York to Miami, Fla., put in here yesterday and reported to the Rudder Station, in charge of Capt. C. D. Maffitt. After receiving stores, when the weather is favorable, the yacht will proceed.

BURGLAR IN HIS ROOM.

Mr. Hugh Turrentine Had an Early Caller Sunday Morning—Strange Coincidence With Another Robbery.

An unusually bold attempt was made to burglarize the residence of Mr. John R. Turrentine, 814 Market street, just before day Sunday morning. Mr. Hugh Turrentine, who was asleep in a room on the second floor of the residence, was awakened about 3:45 A. M. by a cold draft of air upon his face. There was a dim light in the room, and rising to a sitting posture in the bed, Mr. Turrentine saw standing just inside the wide open door a negro man, who appeared not the least excited when he saw that he was discovered.

Mr. Turrentine spoke not a word, but jumped out of the bed and started toward the negro after his pistol. At that moment the negro took fright and dashed down the back steps at two or three leaps and out a lattice door on the first floor, which had evidently been left open in case of a discovery. By the time Mr. Turrentine could arm himself, the negro had disappeared. Entrance to the house was gained either by means of a false key or by raising a window. The burglar was not given time to steal anything.

A search of the house was made after the burglar had escaped and a small pasteboard box, which had evidently dropped from the negro's pocket in the room as he dashed to run, was picked up. In the box were a few articles of trifling value and a certificate of transfer of registration made out to Mr. W. F. Anderson, of Fifth ward. The certificate and articles were turned over to Constable Savage, who investigated the matter and found that Mr. Anderson's residence on Eighth, between Dock and Orange streets, had also been burglarized Saturday night. A trunk had been taken out of one of the rooms, broken open and rifled in the back yard. Mr. Anderson identified the articles and box containing them as those stolen from the trunk taken from his house, proving conclusively that the burglar is engaged in a systematic round of residences in the city.

IN POLICE CIRCLES YESTERDAY.

Mayor's Docket Not Heavy for Monday. Disorder Trial Assumes Proportions.

The Mayor's docket was not heavy yesterday for a Monday session of the court. Lyman Pickens, a negro with a record of two previous convictions, was fined $10 and costs for beating a colored woman in Dross Neck just before daylight Sunday morning. He said that he lay down before the fire Saturday night and when he awoke Sunday morning, his money was gone. He beat the woman to get satisfaction.

Oxall Johnson, a sailor on the British barque "Musselcrag" which is just in from a five month's voyage from Chili, was arraigned for being drunk and down Saturday night. He said that it had been ten months since he had "shore leave" from the vessel before, and the Mayor was, therefore, inclined to condone the offence. He was sent down to Mr. A. S. Heide, to whom the vessel is consigned, and was put aboard the barque.

Walter B. Sidbury, a drunken negro, encountered by Chief Furlong at Fourth and Walnut streets as he was going home Saturday night, was fined $5 and costs.

A case against James Barnhill, of Pender county, for disorderly conduct at D. W. Walker's cart house, Fourth, between Swann and Nixon streets, on Saturday evening, was continued until 4 o'clock in the afternoon for State's witnesses. The defence was represented by ex-Judge E. K. Bryan and J. T. Larkins, Esq., of Burgaw. Walker said that the young man used loud and profane language in the presence of and towards Mrs. Walker, who was temporarily in charge of the cart house. Barnhill was fined $5 and costs, which he paid. WILMINGTON, N. C.

TUESDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 15.

LOOK OUT FOR THE SHIP SUBSIDY SCHEME.

There is no doubt that the Republican party stands for the ship subsidy scheme as well as stands pat on the tariff question. All the schemes of the Republican party call for money, the deficit calls for money, and hence it was necessary to stand pat in order to get the revenue.

The Republican platform in the recent election played hot and cold on the ship subsidy scheme, but after the landslide for Roosevelt on Tuesday, THE STAR announced that we could now look out for the ship subsidy scheme. The endorsement of the Republican policies was so emphatic a week ago that the party will fell like it will be justified in subsidizing the steamships of this country and thus make the people pay a bonus to the ship owners as well as to the manufacturers. Congress is to meet next month but the ship subsidy scheme may not come up at this closing session session of the 58th Congress, except that a bill or several of them may be introduced covering the shipping subsidy in its various forms. However, we can look out for the ship subsidy in earnest when the new Congress just elected gets to work.

Bearing out the STAR's prediction the Philadelphia Record of Sunday says:

"It will create no surprise—it is kindly news—that the presidency of the Pacific Mail has been offered to Governor Odell and will probably be accepted, and that the desire of Mr. Harriman that the Governor should take this position is due primarily to his consciousness of the need of some one to succeed the late Senator Hanna in pushing the Steamship subsidy bill through Congress. In the last session Senator Frye and General Grosvenor were unable to accomplish anything, and the Governor has come out of the campaign with a prestige in his own party that will make him a power in Washington.

"Probably the failure of Senator Frye and General Grosvenor was not due to lack of influence or capacity on their part so much as to the prudence of Congress, facing a national election with some doubt about the popularity of a subsidy scheme, and with the certainty of a deficit even without it. But as the Republican leaders feel that the election has given them carte blanche there will be no hesitation about giving the builders and owners of steamships all that they demand provided that the money can be found.

"It happens that the expenses of the government already exceed the revenues, and that the tendency of former is to increase and of the latter to decline. Even the failure to provide for the statutory redemption of the public debt will not avert a deficit this year, according to official estimates, and next year the expenses will be increased by the interest on the bonds to be issued for the construction of the Panama Canal.

"It was given out from Washington a month ago that the Subsidy Commission had prepared a bill which would be submitted to Congress as soon as it met, and which it was hoped would circumvent this financial obstacle. The bill will propose to increase the payments for carrying the mails under the Act of 1891. Of course, this will increase the expenses, but by making it a part of the postal expenditure, which is always in excess of the revenues, it is hoped to conceal the fact. For the subsidizing of steamers that do not carry mails it is hoped to provide money by increasing the tonnage taxes upon all ships, domestic and foreign. Treaties interfere with the imposition of tonnage taxes on foreign vessels alone, and it is argued that our charges are lower than those of foreign countries and revenues can be raised in this way without provoking retaliation, and it is proposed to supplement this by discriminating duties on indirect trade, as, for example, upon South American products brought to our ports in European steamers. It was explained at the same time that there was a strong feeling among ultra-Protectionists in favor of straight discriminating duties, "and the fact that this would result, through retaliation abroad, in having ships run empty one way, does not wholly deter support from it."

"That many of the ultra-Protectionists were ready for this has been evident for years, and in the new Congress the Republicans will be so strong that the aggressive element can afford to ignore some of their more conservative colleagues. Nothing more reactionary—nothing more opposed to progress—can be imagined than a system of discriminating duties under which all imports would be brought in our vessels and all exports carried in the vessels of the country to which they are consigned, all vessels going empty one way, and charging rates on freights that would pay the expenses of the round trip; but there seems to be little now to stop the trial of this wild experiment."

Not a Sick Day Since.

"I was taken severely sick with kidney trouble. I tried all sorts of medicines, none of which relieved me. One day I saw an advertisement of your Electric Bitters and determined to try that. After taking a few doses I felt relieved, and soon thereafter was entirely cured, and have not seen a sick day since. Neighbors of mine have been cured of rheumatism, neuralgia, liver and kidney troubles and general debility." This is what B. F. Bass, of Fremont, N. C., writes. Only 50 cents, at R. R. BELLAMY'S drug store. †

SOLDIERS TO PROTECT THE PRESIDENT.

President Roosevelt's intention to visit the World's Fair at St. Louis in a few weeks naturally recalls the awful Buffalo tragedy which laid the lamented President McKinley low when he had just finished a great speech and was receiving an ovation at the hands of his people. Is President Roosevelt afraid that another Presidential murderer will be on hand at St. Louis? It appears so from the following editorial reference to a Washington dispatch in the Philadelphia Record on Sunday:

"Coupled with the announcement that eight companies of infantry from Fort McPherson are to guard the World's Fair during its closing days is the assertion that the President desired an armed escort of more than usual proportions to protect him during his sojourn in St. Louis. However keen may be his remembrance of the outcome of the lamented McKinley's visit to the Buffalo Exposition, it is unlikely that President Roosevelt, having just received such a practical testimonial to his popularity, entertains any fear of a treacherous assault. At any rate, he knows that eighty companies of soldiery could afford no more protection than eight vigilant secret service men."

It is well enough to safeguard the President, but if any anarchists are found dogging his foot-steps we will warrant that they will come from the North and not the South.

THE SOUTH IS NOT GUILTY.

The Raleigh Post says:

"The Wilmington STAR says: 'Roosevelt drew the sectional line and the North lined up with him.' What we want to know is, how long will it take the South to get big enough and far-seeing enough to refuse to deliberately walk into such traps? The South should teach the North a lesson by ignoring sectional lines and pay no attention to sentimental sectional issues. The negro question is a dead issue politically, and every speech on that question in the South made Republican votes in the North. Only a thousand or so negroes voted in North Carolina in the late election. As a social issue the race question must be dealt with outside of the realm of politics."

The South, mind you, did not raise the issue. See the Republican national platform.

Captain Hobson made quite a number of Democratic campaign speeches in the North. After he had told an Indiana audience that Roosevelt was not the man to elect, a pretty girl walked up to Hobson and said: "I despise you." The President has sent her his photograph and autograph. He even rewards the finicky females who big stick the spellbinders.

—— What a providential dispensation it will be if, as a result of the political landslide, the Grand Old Party shall have found a Master and the people of the United States a Servant?—Philadelphia Record.

—— In enumerating the Democratic leaders who have contributed so ably to the election of Roosevelt, the New York World betrays its partiality in omitting the distinguished name of Charles F. Murphy.—Philadelphia Record.

—— The South is not going to indulge itself in worries or vain regrets. With the greatest cotton crop it has ever known, and the whole world after it at high prices, the South greets the other sections of our common country with cheerfulness and confidence. Down here we have our eyes turned hopefully toward the future. We have gone through many a worse experience, only to come out smiling. With the lion's share of the prevailing national prosperity—due to a beneficent Providence and not to the Republican party—we send greetings to the sister States North and West, and assure them all: We can stand it if they can.—Atlanta Constitution.

COMFORTING WORDS,

Many a Wilmington Household Will Find Them So.

To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed; to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. To tell how this great change can be brought about will prove comforting words to hundreds of Wilmington readers.

R. A. Biddle, clerk at 19 Market street, residing at 606 Castle street, says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills myself for kidney trouble and my wife who also suffered from backache also used them. I never knew anything to act so quickly. I have suffered quite a long time with my back and kidneys. The kidney secretions were very dark and full of sediment. My wife also complained of her back, and when we read of Doan's Kidney Pills in our newspapers I went to R. R. Bellamy's drug store and got a box. We used them with the best of results. In my case the kidney secretions cleared up and the pains left my back. We have neither of us complained since taking Doan's Kidney Pills, and it is with pleasure that I recommend them at every opportunity."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—The cotton market was effectually cut off from communication with Southern points to-day, and except quotations carrying the New Orleans market, which were furnished by the Associated Press, no Southern news was received. The market opened quiet and steady in response to the Liverpool cables at unchanged prices to an advance of two points. As it was presumed Liverpool was receiving the usual news from New Orleans, the steadiness in that market was taken to indicate that no special change had taken place in the Southern situation. The market held steady all day but ruled very quiet, being finally steady at a net advance of three to five points with sales of about 10,000 bales. This showing was rather better than due on the 1:30 P. M. prices from New Orleans, posted on change about 15 minutes before the official close and which indicated a slight reaction from the opening figures on the winter months.

Doesn't Respect Old Age.

It's shameful when youth fails to show proper respect for old age, but just the contrary in the case of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They cut off maladies no matter how severe and irrespective of old age. Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Fever and Constipation all yield to this perfect pill. Only 25c, at R. R. BELLAMY'S drug store. †

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

— Winston-Salem Sentinel: Socialism in Forsyth county ought to have got enough of it at the last election and retire from business.

— The three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Knox Culbertson, of Rowan county, was burned to death Friday afternoon. The child was in the yard playing with a box of matches.

— Winston-Salem Sentinel: Mr. Douglas, the next governor of Massachusetts, proclaims that he made his fight and won on the issues of reciprocity and tariff relief, and he wants the party to take up these questions as the principal ones in the battle four years hence.

— The report of Dr. J. A. Julian, in charge of the investigation as the cause of the typhoid fever epidemic at the Thomasville Orphanage, attributes it to a lack of sewerage. The milk and water supply were found to contain no bacilli.

— Salisbury Sun, Nov. 12: Joseph Faucette, the negro who was charged with setting fire to the railroad company's hotel, at Burlington, which was burned last spring, was found guilty of arson in the Superior court at Graham yesterday and sentenced to be hanged December 23d.

— Snow is reported at many places in Central and Western North Carolina on Saturday night. A dispatch from Waynesville on Sunday says: Snow began falling here at a late hour last night and has continued at intervals through the day. About four inches has fallen thus far. The temperature is steadily falling to night and some severe weather is expected.

— Charlotte Observer: It is now in order to offer suggestions to the Legislature. The only one we have to offer at present is that it pass proper appropriation bills and adjourn in thirty days. The greater part of the time of our Legislature is occupied with local legislation, and this has done the Democratic party a great deal of harm.

— Charlotte Observer: Our Washington correspondent was told at the White House that the President would be against any movement to reduce the South's representation, certainly during the coming session of Congress. This is good news, and if the information is correct, people down this way will have a somewhat improved opinion of Mr. Roosevelt. However, this matter of the reduction of representation is not nearly so serious as some would have us believe.

— Col. J. N. Craig, of Reidsville, is very much displeased at the findings of the military court martial in the case of the soldiers killed while en route home from the encampment at Morehead City. Their verdict that "the colonel and other regimental officers were remiss in the performance of their duties," he thinks, is an unjust one and he will proceed to vindicate himself. He was not even on the train at the time of the accident; that the men who met their death had orders not to leave the car and he is anything but pleased with the court's finding.

— Salisbury Sun: "Sis" Bates, the young colored girl who is wanted on the charge of murdering Blanche Christian, a companion and throwing her into the creek near the city's pump house, is missing and the officers had been unable to locate her up to 2 o'clock this afternoon. The girl disappeared from the house where she spent Thursday night so mysteriously that not even the slightest trace to his whereabouts is available. There is no doubt in the minds of the officers that she is the murderess of her companion. On the back of the head of the dead girl was found a gash which could not have been produced by a fall and the fact that the Christian girl had in her possession the dead girl's clothes is offered in confirmation of the murder theory. The Bates girl was severely punished by her mother yesterday morning for the larceny of a small sum of money and shortly afterward left home. The officers are satisfied she will yet be taken.

— Charlotte Observer, Nov. 14: "The Pullman conductor told me that at Pineville the snowflakes wuz as big as dollars," said Pierre Savin, when he was telling about the snowfall yesterday. Well, two inches of it did fall, according to scientific computation. It was the earliest snow of any consequence in 26 years is a matter of official record. People who awoke yesterday morning not before 8:30 o'clock were yet in time to see mingled somewhat with rain the fleecy flakes falling heavily. The ground had been wet with rain, but so persistent was the snowfall that some of it clung intact to the earth, and especially on roofs and fences. All the engines arriving in the morning carried crystals caked upon them, and it was said that both north and south of the city the fall was heavy. When Mr. George R. Oberholzer, in charge of the weather bureau, was asked about it, he said that the records showed that the snowfall was quite a record breaker—in fact the very earliest snow in this section that there is official account of was only four days earlier in the year, the date being Nov. 9th, 1886. Mr. Oberholzer went on to state that snow here in the month of November was extremely unusual.

— "Do you think 'silence is golden?'" "Well, hardly. It often covers a lot of ignorance."—New York Herald.

Disastrous Wrecks.

Carelessness is responsible for many a railway wreck, and the same causes are making human wrecks of sufferers from throat and lung troubles. But since the advent of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, even the worst cases can be cured, and hopeless resignation is no longer necessary. Mrs. Lois Cragg, of Dorchester, Mass., is one of many whose life was saved by Dr. King's New Discovery. This great remedy is guaranteed for all Throat and Lung diseases by R. R. BELLAMY, druggist. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

Dr. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION FOR WEAK WOMEN.

— Harry Prilon, a negro mail carrier for the Seaboard and Carolina & Northwestern Railways, was fatally crushed at Lincolnton on Saturday at noon while he was engaged in the performance of his duty. There was a freight train on the Seaboard track, and it had been split in two sections, leaving a gap through which passengers were to pass across the track on their way from the Seaboard station to that of the Carolina & Northwestern, a short distance away. It is a disagreeable expedient at any time, but passengers often resort to it as a short cut, to enable them to catch a train. The mail carrier, all in a hurry, was pushing his way through the gap, when the section to which the engine was attached backed into the opening, cutting the man's body virtually in two and killing him at once.

The Constant Wearing of a Hat Propogates Dandruff Germs.

There are many men who wear their hats practically all the time when awake, and are blessed with a heavy shock of hair; yet if the scalps of these same men once became infested with dandruff germs, the parasites would multiply all the quicker for lack of air. Baldness would ensue as the final result. Newbro's Herpicide kills these germs and stimulates unhealthy hair to abundant growth. Herpicide is a pleasant hair dressing as well as a dandruff cure and contains not an atom of injurious substance. Sold by leading druggists. TUESDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 15.

RUSSIA WILL RESENT ALL PEACE OVERTURES.

Will Pursue the War in the Far East Until She Has Conquered Japan. Count Cassini's Statement

By Cable to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—"Russia will pursue the war in the Far East to the bitter end—that is, until Russia has conquered."

These are the opening words of an epaphatic statement made at the Russian embassy to-day by Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador.

The statement continues: "I deem it my duty to reiterate what I have so often said, that Russia will not suspend in any case her military operations in the Far East. All rumors and reports regarding the possible success of the direct overtures for peace, which Japan is said to have made to Russia, and regarding the mediation of the powers, are in my opinion started for the purpose of convincing the public that the end of the war is close at hand. In this way it is hoped that the public may be led to believe that Japanese loans offer attractive investments.

"Russia can no more admit of interference than Great Britain could in the Transvaal, or than could the United States in her war with Spain. Where the prestige of a country is at stake, all other considerations are and must be put aside. Some people may think financial difficulties will influence Russia to end hostilities. Such an opinion is based on the false assumption of Russia's financial resources. There is no doubt whatever that Russia, whose annual income exceeds one milliard of dollars, cannot be influenced in her attitude toward the outcome of the war by the amount of war expenditures. Is it not altogether out of the question that Russia, who did not expect war, should, in the moment when she has mobilized her army and sending corps after corps in fighting readiness to the Far East, suddenly call a halt on hostilities, particularly after she has, for nearly a year, without any difficulty or recourse to extraordinary measures, been able to carry the extra expense?"

THE WEBER FAMILY MURDER.

Eldest Son Arrested Charged With Killing His Parents, Sister and Young Brother at Auburn, Cal.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

AUBURN, CAL., Nov. 13.—Adolph Weber has been placed under arrest charged with the murder of his parents, sister and younger brother last Thursday night and with having set the family residence on fire afterwards to conceal the crime. Weber took his arrest coolly. The arrest took place immediately after he left the witness stand and after he had reluctantly answered the questions asked him by Coroner Shepard, the district attorney and several of the jurymen.

The latest theory in the Weber murder case is that the murderer shot the father first, then as the sister appeared in the hall he shot her, and then the mother, seeing what had been done, screamed and started from him when he shot her. She continued on across the room and, raising her left hand took down the telephone receiver to call for help at which time she received the second shot which penetrated the body just under the left arm. The child being the only one left, the murderer struck him over the head and felled him. The operator at the central telephone office says that the line that the Weber residence is on showed "busy" at about a half hour before the fire was discovered.

Adolphus Weber, in jail this morning, had nothing to say beyond that he had a good night's rest. No effort has been made as yet to get the young man out on a writ of his attorneys.

Weber's description is said to tally with that of the robber who recently robbed the bank here.

THE JACKSONS SURRENDERED

West Virginia Outlaws Forced to Give Themselves Up on Account of Hunger and Cold.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHARLESTON, W. VA., Nov. 13.—Ed. and George Jackson, the two brothers, of Montgomery, for whom rewards have been offered by both the city and county authorities, surrendered to-day and are now in the county jail at Charleston. The men had been secreted in an abandoned coal mine just outside of Montgomery and were driven to surrender by hunger and cold. Word was sent to Montgomery by a mountaineer and on the arrival of 'Squire Davis and a constable the men gave themselves up without a struggle. Since the shooting of Sheriff Daniels Thursday and the subsequent disappearance the men spent the time in the coal mine and bloodhounds were put on their trail. The officials took the men around the town of Montgomery and by a roundabout way brought the prisoners to Charleston to avoid a riot or lynching which would have occurred had the citizens of Montgomery discovered that the Jacksons had been captured. There are now six prisoners implicated in the Montgomery shooting in the Charleston jail. It is not considered safe to hold the hearing of any of them at the present time.

HURRICANE ALONG ATLANTIC COAST.

Rain and Snow Accompanied the Storm, Adding to Destructiveness of the Gale.

ITS EFFECT IN NEW YORK.

The Most Complete Tie-Up of Wire Communication Since 1888--Trolley Lines Paralyzed—Railroad Schedules Disarranged--Shipwrecks.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—The storm which swept up the Atlantic coast from the Gulf of Mexico yesterday and last night, developing into a gale as it moved northward, resulted in the most complete tie-up of wire communication that the Eastern States have experienced since 1888, disarranged train schedules, paralyzed trolley lines and piled several wrecks along the coast. Rain and snow accompanied the storm, adding to the destructiveness of the gale. Telephone and telegraph poles, borne down by the weight of snow and ice encrusted wires, gave way before the sweep of the wind and whole States were cut off.

How News Was Transmitted.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—That the effects of yesterday's storm were more far-reaching than in any similar disturbance since the great blizzard of 1888, became evident to-day when the disarrangement of wire communication continued almost as complete as at any time during the height of the storm. Up to 10 o'clock many points were completely isolated, while whole sections were reached only by most circuitous routes. To the West, the only points having direct communication with New York were Philadelphia and Baltimore. The Associated Press, however, had succeeded in reaching the West and incidentally many Eastern points, by means of a telephone wire between Baltimore and Chicago. The news report, carried over the regular wires between New York and Baltimore, when it reached the latter city was transferred a distance of ten blocks to the telephone office by cabs, was then forwarded by telegraph to Chicago over a long distance telephone wire and from Chicago was telegraphed back to Washington and other cities which could not be reached over the regular routes.

The same plan was followed in several other cases. For instance, the Associated Press regular New York State circuit, a net work of wires connecting all the principal cities of the State, was practically out of service for a time. Newberg to the north marked the end of the circuit, points beyond being entirely cut off. Finally, however, a temporary circuit was set up by forming a connecting link between Cleveland and Buffalo. From Buffalo the report was relayed down the State as far as Utica. At that point, however, wire paralysis again was encountered, leaving Amsterdam, Schenectady, Albany and Troy completely cut off from the outside world. The only report received from that section of the State to-day came by train from Albany. Four inches of wet snow had broken down telephone, telegraph, electric light and fire alarm wires in Albany and vicinity and badly hampered street car and train service.

While the effect of the storm was not so severe in New England, some points in that section felt the full force of the gale. Wires were down in all parts of Maine. Some points on Cape Cod could not be reached by wire early in the day, and Pittsfield, in the Berkshires, was cut off entirely from both New York and Boston.

Wire service to many points in eastern Canada, which was swept by the storm, also was disabled.

Operations in Wall street were curtailed to-day by reason of yesterday's storm. At the opening of the stock market the Stock Exchange branch of the Western Union Telegraph Company had only a few direct wires working. These were to Philadelphia on the south and Hartford and Boston on the east. Western and Southwestern wires were still down as were all wires south of Baltimore. All messages were accepted subject to delay. At no time since 1888 has the Wall street business of the telegraph companies been so badly crippled.

On the Cotton Exchange business was virtually at a standstill. All telegraph wire commnication was cut off and across the quotation board on the trading floor was written, "No wires." In the first half hour of the cotton market less than half a dozen transactions were made. At the Produce Exchange a similar state of affairs was reported and business there was stagnant. One packing house reported indirect communication with Pittsburg and Chicago, but all other financial wires were still out of commission.

A small army of linemen were sent out directly after daybreak and it is expected that all the damage will be repaired by to-morrow. The local telephone service was not seriously interrupted by the storm, but there was no communication over the telephones to such points as Philadelphia, Boston and Albany.

Storm on Virginia Coast.

NORFOLK, VA., Nov. 14.—No word has yet been received from the Virginia and Carolina coast and until the prostrated wires have been repaired there can be nothing definite of the damage done by the storm. The wind reached a velocity of sixty-two miles an hour at Cape Henry and was necessarily much greater in its force around Hatteras.

The three-masted schooner Myra W. Spear, from Georgetown, S. C., to New London, Conn., which stranded last week on the Carolina coast, thirty miles north of Cape Hatteras, is supposed to have gone all to pieces during yesterday's gale, though no report of any kind has yet been received from the vessel. The Merritt and Chapman wrecking tug Coley, Captain Tooker, made a second start late Saturday for the scene of the wreck of the Spear but Captain Tooker seeing the approach of a storm, anchored between Capes Henry and Currituck, N. C., Saturday night and hurried into port yesterday as quickly as he could get back.

The schooner DeMorey Gray, with hard coal, was in distress off Ocean View yesterday with her jib boom damaged and leaking. The tug Coley on its way back went to the schooner's assistance. The Gray is in command of Captain Walton, brother of Captain Robert Walton, of the schooner Wilson and Hunting, who recently lost his life when the latter vessel was sunk off Barnegat by the Culgoa.

Captain Walton was informed of his brother's death when he reached this port to-day.

Telegrams for the north from Norfolk up to to-night have been sent by wire to Richmond and from there onward by train.

Storm Off Cape Race.

BOSTON, MASS., Nov. 14.—The fierce Southern storm which started off the Florida coast Saturday night has its centre off Cape Race, New Foundland. The storm in the provinces, particularly along the peninsula of Nova Scotia was attended with terrific gales and an unusually low barometer.

Few marine disasters have been reported. So far as known to-night only two vessels were wrecked and no lives were lost.

At Pennellville, Maine, a whale eighty feet long was blown ashore. Unable to get back into deep water the great creature lay helpless on the beach and a bullet from a hunter's rifle ended its life.

FIRE AT KNOXVILLE, TENN.

A Three-Story Brick Building Gutted. Firemen Injured—Property Loss Estimated at $54,000.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

KNOXVILLE, TENN., Nov. 14.—The Lawson-McGhee library, a three-story brick structure at the corner of Gay street and Vine avenue, was gutted by fire this evening, leaving nothing but the bare walls standing. On the ground floor of the building was a double store occupied by the Vance Furniture Company. The second floor was devoted to the public library, containing about fifteen thousand volumes, and the effects of the Commercial Club. On the third floor was the Knoxville Business College. The fire originated in the basement from the furnace and spread with lightning rapidity throughout the structure. Firemen saved the surrounding property only after a hard fight. The building was valued at $20,000 and was given to the public in 1885 by Colonel Charles M. McGhee, of this city, as a memorial to his daughter, Mary Lawson McGhee, who died during that year.

Captain Joseph Frazier, of engine company No. 1 and Captain James Jones, of engine company No. 2 were overcome by smoke. Vernon Miller, a volunteer, was crippled for life by falling glass, his right hand being nearly severed from his arm.

The local fire department is badly crippled as a result of Saturday morning's fire and explosion at the Woodruff Hardware Company's store. Eight members of the department were disabled by it, three of them still being in a serious condition.

The total loss in to-day's fire was $54,000; insurance $37,000.

BOOKER WASHINGTON'S ADVICE.

Address to Colored Citizens Delivered at Birmingham, Ala.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

BIRMINGHAM, ALA., Nov. 14.—In an address to the colored citizens delivered here to-night Booker Washington said:

"Not a few have predicted that on account of the recent election many members of our race would lose their heads, would become unduly pompous, self-assertive and generally offensive. With all the earnestness that I can command, I want to urge our people in every part of the country to disappoint those who have made such predictions by leading a life of increased useulness, soberness and simplicity, remembering, as I have often exhorted before, that in the long run it is to the certain and fundamental ideas of growth in prosperity, intelligence and high Christian character, together with the cultivation of friendly relations with our neighbors of all races, that we must look for our ultimate success.

"The masses of our people are to dwell for all time here in the South, and here it is that our destiny must be worked out, and we can only succeed when we have the confidence and cooperation of those about us."

DECISION REVERSED.

In Case of State of Georgia Against the L. & N. and A. & C. R. Railroads,

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—The decision of the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth circuit, in the case of the State of Georgia against the Louisville and Nashville railroad and the Atlantic Coast Line, to-day was reversed by the Supreme Court of the United States, Justice Holmes delivering the opinion. The case originated in the State's effort to collect taxes on stock of the Western Railway of Alabama held in Georgia, notwithstanding the railroad is an Alabama corporation. The Court of Appeals held against this right. Justice Holmes said in his opinion that unless the constitution and laws of Georgia forbid, the comptroller general of the State was bound to collect the tax. The defendant companies appear in the case because the Alabama road is controlled by them under lease.

MERCHANT MARINE.

Sub-Committee of Congressional Commission Convened in New Orleans.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 14.—Senator Thomas S. Martin, of Virginia, presided to-day over a session of the Southern sub-committee of the Merchant Marine Commission convened here to get the views of the local commercial and mercantile community upon the best means of improving the American Merchant Marine. Senator Mallory of Florida and Congressman Spight, of Mississippi, were present as was Secretary W. L. Marvin, of Boston. A number of exporters and business men attended the session.

RIOTING AT RIO.

A Dozen People Reported Killed and Sixty Others Injured.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

RIO DE JANERIO, Nov. 13.—The opposition to the compulsory vaccination law led to fierce rioting to-day. The troops repeatedly charged the mob, barricades were erected, water and gas mains were cut, plunging the city into darkness, and street cars were burned. The demonstration had every character of a revolution. The president's palace was strongly guarded till midnight.

It was reported that a dozen people were killed and that 60 were injured.

An intermittent fusilade continues.

WARM WIRELETS

Twelve negroes are dead at Sour Lake, a negro settlement in the suburbs of Decatur, Ala., from the effects of poisoned ice cream, which they ate, it is said, at a church rally.

A special from Martinsville, Henry county, Virginia, says Thomas Richardson, a Henry county magistrate, aged 50 years, froze to death Sunday on the public highway.

Papers were signed yesterday for a fight between Jerry McCarthy and the Dixie Kid for the welter weight championship of the world. The fight is to take place at Baltimore, Md., on December 7th.

The monument erected by the State of Maine in memory of its soldiers who died during the war in the prison at Andersonville, Ga., was unveiled there yesterday. The unveiling was by Miss Walton, of Augusta, Maine, and Miss Postos of Andersonville.

JAPS READY TO BEGIN OPERATIONS

Serious Engagement for Possession of Mukden Expected in the Next Few Days.

ARMY HEAVILY REINFORCED.

Russian Forces Under Gen. Kuropatkin Are Well Fortified Along the Shakhe River and Seemingly Are Prepared to Accept a Battle.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

MUKDEN, Nov. 14.—Since yesterday marked signs of a serious engagement taking place within the next few days have been increasing. The Japanese are displaying great activity eastward.

Fears are beginning to be expressed that the railroad will not be able to bring up sufficient supplies.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 14.—The latest indications from the front point to an early resumption of military operations on a large scale. Field Marshal Oyama has received heavy reinforcements from New Chwang and evidently is about ready to wage battle for the possession of Mukden. The Japanese are showing particular activity on their flank as if they were contemplating a turning movement from that direction. General Kuropatkin has fortified his positions along the Shakhe river and as he seemingly is prepared to accept a battle, he doubtless has made his dispositions to block a flanking operation. Acording to the opinion of the military authorities here his left flank is secure.

Port Arthur Advices.

HEADQUARTERS JAPANESE ARMY BEFORE PORT ARTHUR, via Fusan, Nov. 14.—By a general attack on the eastern fortified ridge on October 30th the Japanese gained the moats of the principal forts assailed. These were wider, deeper and stronger than had been supposed, and were defended by caponieries or galleries running north of the Keekwan forts. The galleries were captured after desperate fighting underground.

The Russians still hold parts of the moats, but the Japanese are engaged in sapping to dislodge them, after which the capture of the forts should be easy.

The casualties of the Japanese in this engagement were 1,000.

A Russian Repulse.

GENERAL KUROKI'S HEADQUARTERS, Nov. 14.—A squadron of Russian cavalry yesterday afternoon attacked the Japanese in the neighborhood of Litiatun. The Russians were so severely repulsed that at dusk they were still gathering up their dead and wounded. There has been no other change at the front.

Conference at Tokio.

TOKIO, November 14, 6 P. M.—The Emperor presided at an extended conference of the military and naval staff in the palace to-duy. While the proceedings were secret, it is understood that plans were discussed for dealing with the Russian second Pacific squadron when it arrives in the Far East.

FALL RIVER MILLS.

Attempt to Resume Work a Failure—Operatives Failed to Report.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

FALL RIVER, MASS., Nov. 14.—An attempt to-day by the manufacturers to open the cotton mills in this city, which have been closed for nearly four months by the strike of the operatives against a 12½ per cent. reduction in wages, resulted in failure. The largest number of operatives to report at any one mill for work was forty at the King Philip mill. At the other places from eight to twenty were on hand. The machinery was started in all the mills controlled by the Manufacturers' Association promptly at 6:30 o'clock this morning, and it is understood that it will be kept in operation for two or three days, after which, unless the strikers return to work in large numbers, it will be stopped again. No disorder of any kind occurred.

DIED OF HEART FAILURE.

Miss Isidore Rush, an Actress, While Surf Bathing at San Diego.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

SAN DIEGO, CAL., Nov. 14.—Miss Isidore Rush, an actress, died of heart failure while bathing in the surf. The shock was caused by an immense wave which carried her into deep water. Half a dozen members of her theatrical company were in the surf and assistance was at once hurried to her. She was unconscious when brought to shore. Physicians worked over Miss Rush for an hour in vain. Another member of the company, Milton Heriot, who endeavored to rescue Miss Rush, was rendered unconscious, but was revived after vigorous treatment.

Edwards, receiver, and naming Eugene Martin, of Wilmington, special master, to investigate the affairs of the company and the receiver The plant is ordered to be sold January 16th.

In appearing to the Corporation Commission from a report of State Bank Examiner Ellington that the Merchants' and Farmers' Bank, of Milton, is insolvent, the Commission ordered Mr. Ellington to-night to take immediate charge and hold the assets until a receiver is appointed. The capital is $3,000; due to depositors, $20,766; assets $31,958, of which $27,000 is represented by loans, poorly secured. Herein is the reason for the insolvency. The bank was organized in 1899 with J. A. Hurdle president, and R. L. Walker, cashier.

GOOD WOMAN HAS GONE.

Mrs. Mary E. Moore Entered Peacefully Into Rest on Saturday Night.

[Special Star Telegram.]

CURRIE, N. C., Nov. 14.—A most excellent matron, mother and citizen has gone to her eternal reward. Mrs. Mary E. Moore, relict of James P. Moore, Esq., after a long life of usefulness and honor, died on the night of Nov. 12th, in the 80th year of her age, in peace, surrounded by the loving ministrations of her children and grand-daughter. She will be very much missed in the community in which she lived. She was a life-long member of the Presbyterian church and crossed the dark river leaning upon the strong arm of the Almighty. She leaves to mourn her absence, to emulate her example and to bless her memory, four sons: Jas. F. Moore, Senator-elect from Duplin and Pender counties; A. C. Moore and E. A. Moore, of Currie, and W. B. Moore, the effic ent manager of cotton mills in Greenville, S. C.

THE HON. GEORGE DAVIS.

"Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime."

In the rush and hurry of our modern life after things material we do not often pause to consider the lessons taught us by the lives of the great men, even of our own period of time. They are passing away, oh, so fast—they who bore the burden and heat of the great struggle for Southern independence, who came from the storm of battle to homes made desolate by the invasion of a ruthless foe, and found the Rachel of their love comfortless because her children were not. And before we, too, shall answer the final call of our Great Captain, we would pass on to those who follow after the noble task of perpetuating the memories of those who by unusual talents of mind and character helped to make the South what she is, and what she ever was, even in the days of her bitterest humiliation—the fairest, the best beloved land under God's sweet sky.

In our own Capital City, guarding the southern entrance to the Capitol grounds, stands the statue of that grand Southern gentleman, Washington, ever looking hopefully to the Southland. On the east, facing the rising sun, is the great war Governor, Zebulon Vance. And higher over all, gazing with patient, peaceful eyes toward the setting sun, towards the grandest emblem of them all, the private soldier of the Confederate army. But there are others, too, who in legislative halls, by wise and determined counsel, helped to make the South what she is, and shall we allow the precious heritage of their names and worth to pass with our brief lives, or shall we, by a small sacrifice of time, thought and money, raise in the midst of our fair city such an enduring emblem in marble as shall teach our sons that a "good name is better to be chosen than great riches." Such a monument and such an emblem the Cape Fear and other chapters of the Daughters of the Confederacy hope to rear in honor of one of North Carolina's most gifted sons, the Hon. George Davis—statesman, orator and Christian gentleman.

Every citizen of Wilmington should consider it a privilege to aid in such a cause, and the ladies who have it in charge feel confident they have only to suggest a way and ready hearts will respond. The Wilmington Light Infantry Dramatic Club has consented, at considerable sacrifice to some of its members, to repeat the wonderful success of last week and the Daughters of the Confederacy feel sure that the patriotic citizens of Wilmington will see to it that the Academy of Music is filled to its utmost capacity on next Thursday, 17th.

Dr. Waldemar Bille was beaten into insensibility and badly injured yesterday in his offices in the busiest part of St. Charles street, New Orleans, by a supposed burglar who rifled the doctor's pockets and desk, getting about $10 in cash and a number of checks.

Quality is what makes price. If Burnett's Vanilla Extract was no better than other extracts, its price would be the same. Once tried always used.
